Prague and Berlin Half Marathon - 03-Apr-2027

Combine Prague and Berlin Half Marathons in a single trip to mix an athletic challenge with a European travel adventure. In this unforgettable journey, you'll get to race through two iconic capitals—Prague with its fairytale spires, cobblestone charm, and riverside views, and Berlin with its bold history, modern energy, and of course its famous flat course designed for speed. Between two iconic events, you'll soak in different cultures, explore world-class landmarks, experience the unique rhythm of each city and tick off two superhalf cities over just 4 days. Whether you're chasing a personal best or simply savoring the joy of running abroad, this dual-city race trip offers a dynamic and inspiring way to see Europe—one stride at a time. One trip, two SuperHalfs.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Prague (Thursday)

Welcome to Prague — the capital of the Czech Republic! On arrival, make your way to the hotel. Check in is at 3 PM. The rest of the day is free for you to explore this lovely historic city.

Meal: None

Day 2: Discover Historic Prague and Expo Visit (Friday)

Spend the day exploring Prague's enchanting landmarks, including the Astronomical Clock, Old Town Square, Charles Bridge, Prague Castle, the Church of St. Nicholas, and much more. Don't forget to visit the Marathon Expo to collect your race bib and soak up the pre-race atmosphere before tomorrow's event.
