Prague Half Marathon - 03-Apr-2027

The Prague Half Marathon is one of Europe's most iconic SuperHalves, attracting everyone from world-class elite athletes to first-time runners from across the globe. Whether you're chasing a personal best or soaking up the atmosphere from the sidelines, you'll experience an unforgettable race through one of the world's most beautiful cities. Set against the backdrop of Prague's fairytale skyline, the flat, fast course winds past the majestic Vltava River, historic bridges, colourful Baroque buildings, Gothic churches, and the city's famous medieval squares. Known as the "City of a Hundred Spires," Prague seamlessly blends centuries of history with a vibrant, modern energy, making it an exceptional destination both on and off the course.

The SuperHalves series brings together the excitement of world-class racing and the joy of exploring Europe's most captivating cities. Featuring six spectacular half marathons across Europe, the series invites runners to embark on a unique journey across the continent. Complete all six races and earn the coveted SuperMedal—a symbol of dedication, adventure, and achievement. With fast, professionally organised courses, unforgettable race-day atmospheres, and iconic destinations, every SuperHalf is a milestone worth celebrating.

Your journey starts here.
